*“May I summon all the past, present, and future collected perfections of Master Du to not only disconnect the past, present, and future enmity between me and all enemies (especially all vengeful spirits that have been taking control over my mind and body so far), but also to leave all our previous bad deeds to welcome
new good deeds as offering to all Buddhas.*

From now on, wherever and however I make merit, may all of you please rejoice in my merit until the end of my life and then please forgive me for all bad deeds I have done to harm and hurt you in the past and present, Sadhu!

May I now summon all collected perfections of Master Tuad, Master Du and Master Ma to transfer all merit energy to all my enemies that have been ruling over my mind and body, and that have been harming my life physically and mentally so far.

May all my dear masters please combine all accumulated perfections of all Lord Buddhas, Silent Buddhas, Dhamma teachings, and all noble disciples living in the whole boundless universe of the past, present, and future and all of my own accumulated merit energy to form one united super merit power.

Now please transfer it to the following beings, including my departed and living family members, relatives and non-relatives, all celestial and holy beings of heaven, all my guardian spirits, all viruses and bacteria that cause disease, all of my vengeful enemies (or vengeful enemies of so and so if you wish to pray for someone else) of the past, present, and the future.

May all of you be blessed with the merit power all day and night, and remain blessed forever until the attainment of Nibbana. Once all of you, especially my enemies, have already been blessed with the merit energy, please enter heaven after Master Tuad and Master Du to rest in peace and joy up there and to listen to Dhamma teachings taught by Master Tuad and Master Du.

Finally, may my masters please also take care of all these dedicated enemies and spirits of all dimensions to keep them calm and happy for all time and forever through gaining more merit energy, listening to Dhamma teachings, getting spiritually revived to the higher levels of heaven. Sadhu.”

“May I summon all collected perfections of Lord Buddhas, Silent Buddhas, Noble Saviours and Gods of Compassion, enlightened persons, Dhamma teachings, Noble Disciples of the past, present, and future, and especially all those of Master Du.

May Master Du please transfer all these collected merit energy to this container of water and then bless the water with the Triple Gem’s energy and the magical power to use it as a cleansing tool for an auspicious ceremony, spiritual cleansing, protection against evil and negative energy, removing black magic and negative energy, solving evil casted spells, destroying dark witchcraft attacks, purifying and balancing the four elements in the human body, and healing illnesses and diseases. May all collected perfections of Master Du please help this whole prayer come true and make it work.”
